

Note-Taking Guide
for analyzing the US Constitution and the Great Law of Peace

Directions: As you read, use this note-taking guide to record and organize information about each document. Then, use the information to compare the Great Law of Peace and the US Constitution.

The Document

Title and source of the documents.
What type of document is it?

Your Interpretation

How do you interpret the information in the document based on the knowledge that you already have? How does it add to or change your perspective? Is it credible? Why or why not? What questions does it raise?

Point of View

Who's speaking in the document?
What can you tell about the speaker or creator from the document?

Information

What specific information do you draw from the documents about the similarities between the Great Law of Peace and the Constitution?

Using the Information

How does the information you found in the documents help you to understand the relationship between the Great Law of Peace and the US Constitution?